Firm to Provide Euthanasia Drug

The Washington Post

April 11, 2000 | Guy Gugliotta

A New Jersey pharmaceutical company will make an emergency supply of sodium pentobarbital to alleviate a shortage of the lethal drug needed to destroy an estimated 500,000 sick or unwanted animals each month.

The Humane Society of the United States said Ganes Chemical Works, of Pennsfield, N.J. will resume limited production of the drug while the company makes changes in its ...
